

CND thematic intersessional NOVEMBER 2018 - Selected Speakers

No.	Organisation	Country	NGO Representative	Thematic section	Title	Statement will be delivered
1	Soberlife Mentorship Society	Kenya	Paul Kogi Mburu	7 November 2018: International cooperation	International Cooperation; Platform for Grassroots Organizations Recognition	PANELIST, in person
2	Deakin University and Dalgarno Institute Australia	Australia	Professor John Toumbourou	7 November 2018: International cooperation	A prevention science approach to limiting alcohol and drug related harm.	in person
3	SURUWAT	Nepal	Rajesh Didiya	7 November 2018: International cooperation	Changed Addiction	via video message
4	Washington Office on Latin America (WOLA)	United States of America	John M. Walsh	7 November 2018: International cooperation	Can Cannabis Be Regulated in Accord with International Law?	in person
1	International Drug Policy Consortium	United Kingdom	Ann Fordham	8 November 2018: Taking stock	Taking stock of the last ten years of global drug policy: Key findings from IDPC's civil society shadow report	PANELIST, in person
2	Muslim Education and Welfare Association (MEWA)	Kenya	Hussein Abdalla Tayab	8 November 2018: Taking stock	Protection of Health and Human rights of PWUDs by involving Judiciary and Law enforcement agencies in Mombasa Kenya.	in person
3	Rights Reporter Foundation	Hungary	Peter Sarosi	8 November 2018: Taking stock	The Urgent Need to Support Harm Reduction in Central-Eastern Europe	in person
4	International Network of People who use Drugs	International	Brun González Aguilar	8 November 2018: Taking stock	Drug Policy and the Sustainable Development Agenda: Perspective from People who use Drugs	in person