

CIVIL SOCIETY SPEAKERS - October CND Intersessional 2018

No.	Organisation	Country	NGO- Representative	Thematic section	Title	Statement	Website	Notes
1	Amnesty International	United Kingdom	Daniel Joloy	22 October 2018: Supply reduction and related measures	The continued application of the death penalty for drug-related offences	in person	www.amnesty.org	PANELIST
2	UNIDOS	Mozambique	Belarmino Carlos Langa	22 October 2018: Supply reduction and related measures	Mozambican experience Law Enforcement	via video message
3	Centro de Estudios Legales y Sociales (CELS)	Argentina	Juliana Miranda	22 October 2018: Supply reduction and related measures	The role of Armed Forces in drug control strategies and its impact on human rights. The Latin American region and the case of Argentina	via video message	https://www.cels.org.ar/web/
4	Penal Reform International	International	Olivia Rope	22 October 2018: Supply reduction and related measures	The impact of supply reduction measures on prisons	via video message	www.penalreform.org
5	Observatory of illicit crops and crops producers OCCDI global	Colombia	Carlos Humberto Romero Vergara	22 October 2018: Supply reduction and related measures	Crop Substitution Agreements in Colombia	via video message	www.ocdiglobal.org
1	Eurasian Harm Reduction Association	CEECA	Ola Byelyayeva	23 October 2018: Cross-cutting issues	Positive developments and lessons learnt from progressive national processes in six CEECA states.	in person	https://harmreductioneurasia.org/	PANELIST
2	Higher Education Leadership	Ethiopia	Lul Admasachew	23 October 2018: Cross-cutting issues	Drug Abuse, Crime and Mental Illness: From Research to Implementation in order to Create Social Impact	via video message	https://constitutionandpolicy.wordpress.com
3	México Unido Contra la Delincuencia (MUCD- Mexico United Against Crime)	Mexico	Tania Ramírez	23 October 2018: Cross-cutting issues	Evolving realities: Medicinal cannabis policies and practices around the world	in person	https://www.mucd.org.mx/
4	Global Drug Policy Observatory	United Kingdom	Martin Horton-Eddison	23 October 2018: Cross-cutting issues	Evolving Reality: The Strategic Shift in CryptoDrug Market Enforcement	in person	http://www.swansea.ac.uk/gdpo
5	A New PATH (Parents for Addiction Treatment & Healing)	United States	Gretchen Burns Bergman	23 October 2018: Cross-cutting issues	Ask Mom How to Save A Life With Naloxone	via video message	www.momsunited.net
1	Transnational Institute (TNI)	Netherlands	Martin Jelsma	24 October 2018: Alternative development	Human Rights, illicit cultivation and Alternative Development: connecting the dots	in person	tni.org/drugs	PANELIST
2	Stiftelsen Golden Colombia (Golden Colombia Foundation)	Norway/Colombia	André Øystein Schjetne	24 October 2018: Alternative development	Leveraging technology to stimulate entrepreneurship in the Colombian countryside	in person	www.goldencolombia.org
3	Myanmar Opium Farmers Forum (MOFF)	Shan State, Myanmar	Nang Yon	24 October 2018: Alternative development	the link between opium cultivation and armed conflict	via video message	No website
4	Andean Information Network	Bolivia	Roxana Argandoña	24 October 2018: Alternative development	Coca Reduction, Development, and Human Rights Impacts on Coca Growing Women and Their Communities	via video message	http://ain-bolivia.org/	